

FORECLOSURE SALE PROCESS

This information is intended as a reference guide to the general procedure for Foreclosure Sales in Bradford County. For official information regarding Foreclosures please refer to Chapter 45 of the Florida Statutes.

Foreclosure Sales

Foreclosure sales are sales of properties ordered sold pursuant to final judgments in foreclosure actions or other judicial sales ordered by the court. The properties are offered for sale to the highest bidder in order to satisfy the judgment. The Clerk's Office conducts the sale or public auction in accordance with Florida Statutes. The information below offers a general overview of the foreclosure process, however these proceedings are governed by Florida Statutes and appellate case law interpreting these statutes. Anyone participating in these auctions should research not only the properties involved but the foreclosure court case and all the law governing the process.

Foreclosure Sale Process

In actions to foreclose mortgages or liens on real property, the court, in its final judgment will order a judicial sale of the property. The clerk conducts the sale in accordance with statutes governing judicial sales, set forth in chapter 45, Florida Statutes. The plaintiff is entitled to a setoff bid up to the amount of the judgment plus any additional amounts due the plaintiff by court order or affidavit filed with the clerk. While foreclosure judgments foreclose the interests of inferior mortgagees, lienholders and any other persons or entities named as parties to the action, served with process and whose interests are legally foreclosed by the court, title issued by the clerk after a judicial sale is not warranted to be free of any potential claims. BUYER BEWARE! All properties are sold “AS IS.” Bidders are responsible for conducting their own research on the property being sold, its location or condition, the condition of any structures or fixtures on the property, its marketability, potential uses, zoning, or whether any other potential liens or other defects in title may exist.

The Clerk's Office is not authorized to give legal advice. If you require legal advice, you should obtain it from an attorney or some other source. The Clerk's office makes no representation about the condition, marketability, existing or potential uses, title, or encumbrances or existence of any condition, zoning regulation or law that may affect current or future uses of the property, regarding any property and structures or fixtures on the property offered for sale by the Clerk.
